

Frequently Asked Questions for Suppliers

Why is the name changing?

The name KLA-Tencor is 22+ years old, and we wanted to refresh the name, colors and logo to reflect our updated outlook and culture.

What is the official name change? When does the change take place?

The company's legal name is changing to KLA Corporation effective approximately July 1, 2019.

How does the name change impact suppliers?

For US transactions, please change the company's legal name to KLA Corporation effective approximately July 1, 2019. All transactions with non-US entities will remain unchanged. Some suppliers may need to create new vendor codes instead of changing their existing codes.

What entities will change their name?

Only the U.S. corporate entity's legal name will be changed at that time.

Will the tax ID number change? No.

What do I need to change and when?

For US purchase orders only, please continue to send invoices to KLA-Tenor Corporation. We will send a communication with further instructions before the planned name change in July 2019.

What happens if I send invoices in the old name after the name changes goes into effect?

They will still be paid.

Is there any change to our contracts?

Not immediately. Over time we will amend existing contracts to reflect the new name.

Your January 10, 2019 press release says that you are trying to appeal to a broader audience. What new business areas are you expecting to enter?

We are looking at businesses within the electronics value chain.

Are there any management changes associated with this name change? No.

Whom should I contact for help? Please contact your buyer or supply chain manager.
